

THE PLEDGE

- I commit to making myself priority #1.
- I embrace and celebrate my uniqueness.
- I take responsibility for my individual expression of womanhood.
- I extend the golden rule to every woman I meet.
- I accept each and every woman just as she is.
- I treasure the women in my tribe and make time to nurture those relationships.
- I honor the sacredness of the sisterhood and cherish the wealth shared within it.
- I endeavor to express my most powerful self each day.

With an open heart,
I step into the Global Red Circle
and take my place in the sisterhood.
